

PRAYER PROGRAM – RESOURCES

PRAYER PROGRAM	RECOMMENDED BOOKS
Mass	St. Leonard of Port Maurice, The Hidden Treasure James T. O'Connor, The Hidden Manna (more theological but also accessible) Adrienne von Speyr, The Mass (more mystical, but with underlying theology) Fulton Sheen: (i) Calvary and the Mass ; (ii) Youtube: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UqDMO5iAX64 Romano Guardini, Meditations before the Mass
Liturgy of the Hours	Cardinal Ratzinger, The Spirit of the Liturgy
Mental Prayer (using Scripture)	St. Francis de Sales, Introduction to Devout Life (a few chapters within the book) Timothy Gallagher, Meditation and Contemplation (Ignatian format) Dom Chautard, Soul of the Apostolate (a section/chapter)
Examen Prayer	Timothy Gallagher, The Examen Prayer (my favorite modern interpreter of Ignatius) There are many works by Jesuits
Sacred Scripture and Spiritual Reading (including lives of saints)	There is a series of tapes of talks given by Scott Hahn in his lectures at Steubenville, very worthwhile (e.g., on John, Old Testament, other Gospels, letters of Paul, etc). This is the best place to start. Those giving talks on Church doctrine or Scripture will find a valuable resource in a relatively new electronic library resource program called “Verbum” (Catholic division of “Logos”). The following are very theological works but outstanding: Henri de Lubac, “Scripture in the Tradition” (also titled “Sources of Revelation”); Albert Vanhoye, Old Testament Priests and the New Priest according to the New Testament [on the Letter to Hebrews]; Ignace de la Potterie The Hour of Jesus [Gospel of John]
Spiritual Communion and Aspirations	Dom Chautard, Soul of the Apostolate (writes about it in this book) The Opus spirituality recommends these strongly, in Googling the internet, there is at least one reference in their writings: http://www.escrivaworks.org/book/friends_of_god-subject-123.html
Weekly Confession	See below for a Confession Guide.
Annual Retreats	Good retreat centres include: Oblates of the Virgin Mary based in Boston; Opus Dei retreats; St. Augustine Seminary faculty - the Legionaries of Christ retreats; New Jerusalem Monastic Community in Montreal. Online Ignatian Annotation 19 retreat (30 day retreat done over about 8 months) by Creighton University: http://onlineministries.creighton.edu/CollaborativeMinistry/cmo-retreat.html

How to make a Good Confession

Five Steps For a Good Confession

1. Examine your conscience.
2. Be sincerely sorry for your sins.
3. Confess your sins to a priest.
4. Resolve to amend your life.
5. After your confession, do the penance the priest assigns.

Procedure in the Confessional

You say:

“Bless me, Father, for I have sinned. It has been - (state the length of time) – since my last confession. These are my sins.”

Then tell your mortal sins and the number of times committed. If you have no mortal sin to confess, then confess the venial sins you have committed since your last confession. When you have finished telling your sins, you should say:

“For these and all the sins of my past, I am truly sorry.”

The priest now gives the necessary advice, assigns your penance and asks you to say the Act of Contrition (in some form). Then wait and listen as the priest gives the absolution

Then say “Thank you, Father”, then leave the confessional and then perform the penance assigned by the priest.

The Differences in sins

There are two kinds of actual sin, mortal and venial.

Mortal sin is a horrible offense against God, so horrible that it destroys the life of grace in the soul. Three simultaneous conditions must be fulfilled for a mortal sin: (1) the act must be something very serious; (2) the person must have sufficient understanding of what is being done; (3) the person must have sufficient freedom of the will. So I cannot commit a mortal sin if the matter is not serious (e.g., if I stole a small amount of money from my employer), or if I did not know what I was doing (e.g., if I were to hurt someone accidentally or unthinkingly), or if I did not act with full freedom (e.g., I was under physical or emotional pressure).

A Catholic should know well the difference between mortal and venial sins. Deliberately missing Sunday Mass without sufficient cause is to be considered a very serious mortal sin.

Examination of Conscience

- 1. I am the Lord your God. You shall not have strange gods before me.
Do I give God time every day in prayer?
Do I seek to love Him with my whole heart?
Have I been involved with superstitious practices (horoscopes or ouija boards) or have I been involved with the occult?
Do I seek to surrender myself to God's Word as taught by the Church?
Have I ever received Communion in the state of mortal sin?
Have I ever deliberately told a lie in Confession or have I withheld a mortal sin from the priest in Confession?
- 2. You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain.
Have I used God's name in vain: lightly or carelessly?
Have I been angry with God?
Have I wished evil upon any other person?

Am I jealous of what other people have?
Do I envy other people's families or possessions?
Am I greedy or selfish?
Are material possessions the purpose of my life?
Do I trust that God will care for all of my material and spiritual needs?

An Act of Contrition

“O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven, and the pains of hell, but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, Who art all good and deserving of all My love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Thy grace, to sin no more and to avoid the near occasions of sin. Amen.”
